

Scholarship Information	Scholarship Criteria
1st Sergeant (1SG) Samuel E. Avera Scholarship Amount: $1,493 Offered to a new or currently enrolled veteran with at least sophomore standing attending full time who has a service-connected disability from their service in the United States military. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • Verification that you are a veteran discharged from service with a service-connected disability (DD214 or a Letter of Certification of Disability). • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4)
Alumni and Friends Scholarship Amount: $1,906; 2 awarded Offered to new students (all class levels) and currently enrolled students with at least sophomore status at the time of application attending full time who have been involved with community service. The applicants must demonstrate financial need. Preference will be given to first-generation college students.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • One page letter of application providing a personal statement about who you are and why you should be considered for this scholarship. Include a statement related to financial need. • A one- to two-page essay describing your community service experience and how the Evergreen interdisciplinary approach will or has helped you achieve your current and future educational goals. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past year from individuals other than relatives. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Amando Barzola Hidalgo Memorial Scholarship Amount: $714 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full time and for whom Spanish is their first language. Applicants must excel academically, exhibit an interest in social and/or environmental justice, and demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application demonstrating your ability to academically succeed and interest in social and/or environmental justice. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation that support your qualifications for this scholarship. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

AmeriCorps Service Award Amount: $1,800; 5 awarded Important Information: this is a tuition award. Tuition Awards listed are a waiver of a student's tuition. A recipient of a tuition award cannot receive funding in excess of the cost of full-time undergraduate tuition. In addition, a recipient of a tuition award cannot use the funding for any of the study abroad consortium agreements. Offered to new and currently enrolled students attending full time who have completed one year of full time service with the Ameri-Corps program. Students may receive this award for up to two academic years, but must reapply each year.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your commitment to community service and how AmeriCorps and the Education Award have impacted your desire to attend college. • One letter of recommendation, preferably from an AmeriCorps program supervisor, supporting your application. • Verification of completing one year of full-time service with AmeriCorps programs. Examples of evidence include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) a copy of your AmeriCorps Education Award voucher; or (b) a signed letter from a program supervisor.
Ann Gavell Scholarship Amount: $1,852; 2 awarded Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time who is focusing on economics or political economy. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your interest in economics and/or political economy. • Why are you interested in this field of study? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Art & Magda Costantino Scholarship Amount: $1,489 Offered to a currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time who demonstrates interest in studying social sciences or education. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. The applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your interest in studying education or social sciences. • What are you studying at Evergreen and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Barbara McCann Art Scholarship Amount: $1,626 Offered to a currently enrolled student attending at least half time with junior or senior standing who demonstrate artistic merit through submitted works. All forms of drawings are eligible except cartoon, graphic novels and digital drawings.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Submit original prints including a list of the works and a description of the media printed on 8.5” x 11” paper. • An artist statement no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your submitted works and write about why you produce art and what’s unique and special about how you make your work. • How do you plan to use your education after you finish Evergreen? • Statement related to your financial need.
Bennett Scholarship Amount: $1,721; 1 for a new student, 1 for a currently enrolled student Offered to a new or currently enrolled full time student. Recipients will demonstrate an interest in an academic course of study applying science or technology to questions in the humanities or social sciences.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are you studying and why? • How are you applying science or technology to questions in the humanities or social sciences? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application.
Bonnie Phillips Memorial Scholarship Amount: $900 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending at least half time who has a demonstrated interest in environmental studies, with a preference for those interested in forest protection and global warming.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your interest in environmental studies, specifically your interest in forest protection and global warning. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA or WAFSA (See How to Apply #4).
Byron Youtz Memorial Scholarship Amount: $2,583 Offered to a currently enrolled student attending full time with junior or senior standing for the 2017–18 academic year. Applicants must demonstrate a commitment to study in either the natural sciences or humanities/arts and must give evidence of strong personal interest in the alternate discipline. This would include, for example, a student whose study emphasis during the freshman and sophomore years has been in science/math, but who has also pursued interests in the humanities or expressive arts; or the candidate may have worked primarily in the latter fields while also exploring some area of science, math or computer studies.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application briefly describing recent studies at Evergreen and plans for the near future, and indicating how these express a balanced interest in the sciences/math and humanities/arts. • Three letters of recommendation written within the past year, including at least two from faculty members. • Unofficial copies of Evergreen evaluations (see How to Apply #3C).
Carleton Morris Cooley Scholarship Amount: $500 Offered to a currently enrolled student attending full time who will have senior standing for the 2017-18 academic year, who demonstrates excellence in writing in the English language and has accumulated the equivalent of 48 credits in English courses. Preference will be given to students who participate in college governance.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your qualifications. • Samples of your writing • A letter of recommendation written within the past year from an Evergreen faculty member.

Charles and Barbara McCann Scholarship Amount: $6,543 Offered to a student with senior standing for the 2017–18 academic year who will be attending full time and has completed at least three quarters at Evergreen at the time of application. The applicant must show the capacity to work well with others and demonstrate the ability to successfully carry out a plan of study. Preference will be given to students demonstrating financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your qualifications. Include a statement related to your financial need. • One letter of recommendation written within the past year from a current or recent faculty member. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Charles and Miriam Matthews Scholarship Amount: $2,485 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending at least half time who is the first in their family to attend college and has demonstrated financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish at Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining that you are the first in your family to attend college and have financial need. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Chastain/Barnett Scholarship Amount: $4,676 Offered to a new transfer or currently enrolled student with junior or senior standing attending at least half time. The student must demonstrate an interest in computer science and technology through previous academic work and extracurricular activities (computers, software, electronics or digital media) and a personal commitment to using technology for the betterment of society through community involvement. The area of study does not have to be computer science; all disciplines are encouraged to apply. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application, not to exceed two pages, addressing your reasons for attending Evergreen, your qualifications and academic achievements, and why you wish to be considered for this scholarship. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Resume detailing your work, educational and volunteer experience. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past year from individuals, other than relatives, who are familiar with your achievements. • New students must submit unofficial transcripts from each college they have previously attended (see How to Apply #3B). These are in addition to ones submitted for admission. • Current Evergreen students must submit copies of Evergreen transcripts (see How to Apply #3C) or letters from program faculty specifically addressing academic achievement. The letters from faculty will not substitute for letters of recommendation if used to replace evaluations. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Colin Reese Memorial Scholarship Amount: $3,524 Offered to a currently enrolled student with junior or senior standing attending at least half time. The applicant must demonstrate academic interest and achievement in the study of political science, economics and/or political economy. The applicant should also demonstrate interest and involvement in the community through volunteer work, internships, paid employment or other means. Financial need will also be considered.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A letter of application addressing your qualifications and why you wish to be considered for the scholarship. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation, at least one from current or recent faculty members and the other from an individual other than a family member who is familiar with your involvement in the community. • Unofficial copies of Evergreen evaluations (see How to Apply #3C). • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Common Application Scholarships Amount: Varying amounts; multiple awards Applicants for this scholarship will be considered for all of the following scholarships. PLEASE SUBMIT ONLY ONE APPLICATION. Recipients for all of the opportunities will be selected from a combined application pool. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tuttle Baldwin Scholarship ($1,486) • Francisco Bautista Scholarship ($2,158, two awarded) • TQ Berg Family Scholarship ($1,460) • Judy Cushing Scholarship ($2,892) • Dan Evans Scholarship ($1,329) • Evergreen Parents' Endowed Scholarship ($1,000) • Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation Scholarship ($2,422, two awarded) • Merrill & Rhea Gordon Scholarship ($1,993) • Jane Jervis Scholarship ($1,000) • K2 Scholarship ($2,742, two awarded) • Linda Kahan Scholarship ($1,435) • Daniel Ira Klein Memorial Scholarship ($3,916, two awarded) • Les Purce Scholarship ($2,723, two awarded) • Oscar Soule Scholarship ($1,456) • Girvin Family Scholarship 2 ($1,000) • Sarah and Stanley Rumbaugh Scholarship ($1,000) 	Offered to a new or currently enrolled students with at least sophomore standing attending full time. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following to be considered for all the opportunities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Cultural Diversity Award Amount: Varying amounts up to the value of resident tuition for 18 credits Important Information: this is a tuition award. Tuition Awards listed are a waiver of a student's tuition. A recipient of a tuition award cannot receive funding in excess of the cost of full-time undergraduate tuition. In addition, a recipient of a tuition award cannot use the funding for any of the study abroad consortium agreements. Offered to new and currently enrolled students attending at least half time who can demonstrate the capacity to assist the college in achieving its commitment to cultural diversity. Students may receive this award for up to two academic years, but must reapply each year.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application explaining your achievements and why you wish to be considered for this award. • New students must submit transcripts from high school and each college they have previously attended (see How to Apply #3A and B). These are in addition to ones submitted for admission. • Current Evergreen students must submit copies of Evergreen evaluations (see How to Apply #3C) or a letter from the program faculty specifically addressing academic achievement. The letter/s from faculty will not substitute for letters of recommendation if used to replace evaluations. • Three letters of recommendation written within the past year from individuals, other than relatives, who are familiar with your achievements. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Dan & Sheryl Tishman Scholarship Amount: $2,086, multiple awards, renewable Offered to new or currently enrolled students with at least sophomore standing attending full time who are interested in studying sustainability or nature conservation and business. The award is renewable and is dependent upon satisfactory completion of Evergreen academic work. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for studying sustainability or nature conservation and business. • Why are you interested in these fields of study? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
David L. Hitchens Scholarship in Honor of Frances Marie Rasmussen Amount: $3,067 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full time who will be the first in their family to attend college and is studying in the humanities, social sciences or arts. Applicants must demonstrate financial need. All things being equal, preference will be given to female applicants in honor of David's mother, Frances Marie Rasmussen.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages outlining how you meet the criteria. In addition, address your financial need and how receiving the scholarship will impact your ability to stay in college. • Two letters of recommendation including one from a faculty member. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
David Matthew Jeter Memorial Scholarship Amount: $950 Offered to a currently enrolled student attending full time who is pursuing studies in environmental sciences. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application describing your interest in environmental sciences. Include a statement related to your financial need. • A letter of recommendation from an individual, other than relatives, who can speak to your interest. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
David Whitener Memorial Scholarship Amount: $1,000 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full or half time who is a first generation college student (e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university). The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How has your status as a first generation college student influenced your educational experience? • Why have you chosen to pursue a college degree at Evergreen? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement related to your financial need. • FAFSA or WAFSA (See How to Apply #4).
Dennis E. Jones Memorial Scholarship Amount: $2,008 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full time who demonstrates an interest in Information Management and/or Computer Science and is either a current Washington state employee attending Evergreen or shows an interest in working in Washington state government after graduating.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application describing your interest in Information Management and/or Computer Science, along with your interest in working with Washington state government.

Don Finkel Memorial Scholarship Amount: $5,061 The Don Finkel Memorial Scholarship is offered to a currently enrolled student who will be attending full time and has completed at least three academic quarters at Evergreen. The scholarship will be awarded to a student who shows excellence in work in the humanities. Financial need is not a consideration.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application, not to exceed two pages, describing your interest in the humanities. • Two letters of recommendation from faculty that address your previous work and potential in the humanities. • Unofficial copies of Evergreen evaluations (see How to Apply #3C).
DREAMership Scholarship Amount: $5,700; 2 awards Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending at least half time. The applicant must be either an undocumented immigrant or a United States resident whose first language is not English. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your qualifications and why you wish to be considered for the scholarship. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA or WAFSA (See How to Apply #4).
Eckerman Family Scholarship for Women in Science and Technology Amount: $1,000 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student who self-identifies as a woman and demonstrates an interest in science or technology studies at Evergreen.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages describing your interest in science or technology studies at Evergreen.
Ed Kelly Memorial Scholarship Amount: $1,660 The Ed Kelly Memorial Scholarship is offered to a new transfer or currently enrolled student with junior or senior standing attending at least half time who demonstrates an understanding that social justice is an essential element in creating a sustainable future both politically and environmentally. Financial need will be considered.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application, not to exceed two pages, that describes how you would or have used these values to affect life as you know it. Include a statement related to your financial need. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Edith K. Draham Scholarship Amount: $1,064 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending Evergreen full time with demonstrated ability in fiction writing and demonstrated financial need	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application explaining your achievements and why you wish to be considered for this scholarship. Include a statement related to your financial need. • A finished work of fiction—a short story or novel segment. • A letter of recommendation written within the past year. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Elizabeth C. Moore Scholarship Amount: $1,250 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with demonstrated financial need who can provide verification of their honorary discharge of service with the United States Military.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application, no longer than two pages that responds to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are you studying at Evergreen and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Verification of honorary discharge of service with the United States Military (DD214) • FAFSA or WASFA (see Steps to Take #4).
Elizabeth Ker Gordon Memorial Scholarship Amount: $1,000 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student who will travel as part of an environmental studies program, internship or independent learning contract. Preference will be given to students who demonstrate an interest in hydrology or stream management. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages describing your plans for travel with an environmental studies program, internship or independent learning contract. Describe any interest you have in hydrology or stream management. • FAFSA or WASFA (see Steps to Take #4).

Evergreen Trustees' Scholarship Amount: $1,444 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time, who has demonstrated leadership and are interested in pursuing a leadership role following graduation. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe how you have demonstrated leadership skills to date. • What are you studying and how will it support you in future leadership roles? • How do you plan to use your degree to pursue a career in leadership after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Forest Ecology Scholarship in honor of Mrs. Suzanne Houts Stilson Amount: $1,868 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full time who demonstrates an interest in forest ecology.	Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your interest in forest ecology. • What are you studying at Evergreen and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application.

Foundation, First Peoples, and Rita Sevcik Scholarships

Amount: Varying amounts; multiple award (renewable)

PLEASE SUBMIT ONLY ONE APPLICATION to be considered for all three scholarship opportunities listed below (Foundation, First Peoples, and Sevcik Scholarships). Recipients will be selected from a combined application pool.

Foundation Scholarship

Multiple awards in varying amounts contingent on class standing

- Freshmen - $9,000 (split over 4 years)
- Sophomore - $7,000 (split over 3 years)
- Juniors - $5,000 (split over 2 years)
- Seniors - $3000 (one year)

Offered to new or currently enrolled students attending full time who have the potential to distinguish themselves after graduation in a field of their choosing. Preference will be given to students demonstrating financial need.

First Peoples' Scholarship

Amount: Multiple awards in varying amounts contingent on class standing

- Freshman - $9,000 (split over 4 years)
- Sophomore - $7,000 (split over 3 years)
- Juniors - $5,000 (split over 2 years)

Offered to new or currently enrolled students of color (African American, Asian, Latino/Latina, Native American, Pacific Islander, Alaskan Native or students who self-identify as multi-racial) with freshman, sophomore or junior standing attending full time who have the potential to distinguish themselves after graduation in a field of their choosing. Preference will be given to students demonstrating financial need.

Rita Sevcik Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Offered to new or currently enrolled students attending full time who have the potential to distinguish themselves after graduation in a field of their choosing. Preference will be given to students demonstrating financial need.

Submit the following to be considered for all 3 scholarship pools:

- Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application:
- What do you intend to study at Evergreen and why?
- How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen?
- Describe how you plan to use your talents to make a difference after graduation.
- Two letters of recommendation supporting your application.
- FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4)

Fred Goldberg Scholarship

Amount: $2,062

Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time with a passion for the arts. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need.

In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following:

- Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness
- A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university
- Native American
- Hispanic/Latino
- African American
- A parent
- Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree

- Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application:
 - Describe your passion for the arts.
 - Why are you interested in the arts?
 - What are you studying and why?
 - How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen?
- Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above.
- Two letters of recommendation supporting your application.
- FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Gail & Rudy Martin Scholarship

Amount: $1,000

Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending at least half time who can demonstrate a high degree of motivation, initiative, persistence and resourcefulness in pursuit of their educational and life goals. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need.

- Letter of application addressing your motivation, initiative, persistence and resourcefulness in pursuing your educational and life goals. Include a statement related to your financial need.
- Two letters of recommendation supporting your application.
- FAFSA or WAFSA (See How to Apply #4).

George Washington Hayduke III Scholarship for Environmental Education Amount: $3,897 Offered to a currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time who demonstrate interest in studying environmental protection, enhancement, or mitigation. This scholarship is also intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for environmental protection, enhancement, or mitigation. • Describe how your studies and any volunteer or paid work express your commitment to protection of the environment. • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish at Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Girvin Family Scholarship Amount: $1,457 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time and focusing on the arts. Applicants must demonstrate a passion for studying the arts and creative expression. Preference will be given to students interested in creative communications, and graphic design, visual art or creative writing, although students interested in all forms of artistic expression will be considered. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for and experience in the arts. • Why are you interested in creative expression? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Haefeli Family Scholarship Amount: $1,899 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time interested in making a difference in the lives of others. This can be through their passionate pursuit of a field of study and is not limited to a specific area of interest. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for making a difference in the lives of others. • Why are you interested in your chosen field of study and how will it support you in making a difference in the lives of others? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Heck Family Scholarship Amount: $1,000 Offered to a new freshman entering Evergreen Fall Quarter who is a high school senior attending a Thurston County high school. Applicants must be the first in their family to attend college and have a demonstrated zero Expected Family Contribution based on a FAFSA or WAFSA determination. Preference will be given to students who can demonstrate the capacity to overcome hardship. Note: Recipient must be willing to commit to providing feedback about the impact of the scholarship on his or her ability to complete a degree at Evergreen and/or other subsequent institutions during the year of the award and up until graduation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages outlining how you meet the criteria above. In addition, address your financial need and how receiving the scholarship will impact your ability to stay in college. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA or WAFSA (See How to Apply #4).
Jacinta McKoy Community Based Learning and Action Scholarship Amount: $2,178 Offered to a currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time who demonstrate interest in pursuing community based service and social change. This scholarship is also intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. The applicant should also be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in their family to go to college (i.e., neither parent has a four-year college degree) • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for community-based service and social change. • Describe how your studies and any volunteer or paid work express your commitment to community based service and social change? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set above. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Jackie Robinson Memorial Scholarship Amount: $2,881; 3 awarded Offered to new transfer and currently enrolled students of color (African American, Asian, Hispanic, Native American) attending full time. This scholarship seeks to recognize a student for academic achievement and outstanding commitment to community involvement and social justice. Preference will be given to a student demonstrating financial need and who transferred from Seattle Central Community College.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application illustrating your academic achievement and outstanding commitment to community involvement and social justice. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past year. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Jason Andrew Oak Memorial Scholarship Amount: $1,552 Offered to a currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time who demonstrates an interest in the performing arts with preference given to students passionate about dance or theatre. This scholarship is also intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in their family to go to college (i.e., neither parent has a four-year college degree) • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your interest in performing arts. • What are you studying at Evergreen and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set above. • FAFSA or WASFA (see Steps to Take #4).
Jeanne Hahn Scholarship Amount: $3,558 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college for reasons not related to academic performance, with preference given to a student who is the first in his or her family to attend college and has demonstrated financial need. The successful applicant should demonstrate an interest in political economy or history. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your academic interest in political economy or history. • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Jess and Hanna Spielholz Scholarship Amount: $1,000 Offered to a currently enrolled Evergreen student with an expressed desire to work in the field of health education. The successful applicant must have at least a minimum junior standing at the time of her/his application plus two terms of successful course work at Evergreen. Preference will be given to candidates who have successfully completed academic work in health education or a closely related field and have demonstrated excellent communication skills.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application including a brief essay on applicant's health education career goals. • Two letters of recommendation.

John and Andrea Adams Scholarship Amount: $1,241 Offered to a currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing who shows interest in working in an environmental field. This scholarship is intended to support students at risk of dropping out of college with preference given to a single parent. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your qualifications and your interest in working in an environmental field. Include a statement related to your financial need. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Joseph Albert Dear Memorial Scholarship Amount: $2,427 Offered to new or currently enrolled students with at least sophomore standing attending full time who are pursuing studies with a public policy focus in preparation for a career in public service. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe how your studies focus on public policy and prepare you for a career in public service. • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
JUNO Scholarship Amount: $4,705; 2 awarded Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time and shows great promise as an artist in painting, drawing or mixed media based on drawing or painting. This scholarship is also intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in their family to go to college (i.e., neither parent has a four-year college degree) • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your experience in painting, drawing or mixed media based on drawing or painting. • Why are you interested in your chosen area of artistic expression? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • A CD/DVD with samples of your work. • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Lamb Leg Up Scholarship Amount: $1,682 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full time. Preference will be given to students from Grays Harbor.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application

Lamb Leg Up II Scholarship Amount: $2,037 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time. Preference will be given to students from Grays Harbor. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in their family to go to college (i.e., neither parent has a four-year college degree) • Native American • Hispanic/Latino 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Learning Seed Foundation Scholarship Amount: $2,928 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college for reasons not related to academic performance and who demonstrate financial need. The applicant must also demonstrate a commitment to using their talents to give back to his or her community. Preference will be given to students of color and students who are the first in their family to attend college. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in his or her immediate family to attend college • Native American • Hispanic/Latino 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish at Evergreen? • Describe how you have used your talents to give back to your community, as well as how you intend to do so in the future. • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Lee Hoemann Scholarship Amount: $1,505 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time and also studying environmental science or environmental policy. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in their family to go to college (i.e., neither parent has a four-year college degree) • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for and experience in environmental science and/or environmental policy. • Why are you interested in this area of study? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Life on Earth Scholarship Amount: $1,222 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending at least half time who can demonstrate a commitment to incorporating the outdoors into their academic work at Evergreen. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your commitment to incorporating the outdoors into your academic work. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Litchman Family Scholarship Amount: $2,764, 2 awarded Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time and committed to pursuing a career in healthcare. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in their family to go to college (i.e., neither parent has a four-year college degree) • Native American • Hispanic/Latino 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for pursuing a career in health-care. • What are you studying now and how will it support your future endeavors? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for pursuing a career in health-care. • What are you studying now and how will it support your future endeavors? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for studying technology. • Why are you interested in technology? • How do you plan to apply your learning after you finish at Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Margery B. Brown Memorial Media Fund Amount: $1,000 The scholarship has been created to support the student-oriented teaching and production work in which Marge invested so much of her life at The Evergreen State College until her passing in 2006. Marge moved to Olympia in 1977 to attend The Evergreen State College. After graduating, she began her lifelong career as a faculty and staff member for the college. This scholarship will support a new or currently enrolled student interested in researching, producing and supporting socially relevant, experimental and critical media. Financial need will be considered.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your interest in researching, producing and supporting socially relevant, experimental and critical media. • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish at Evergreen? • Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Mark Blakley Memorial Award Amount: $1,573 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full time who is pursuing the fine arts (writing, painting, sculpture, photography, etc.). Award will go to a student who shows talent, potential and creativity.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your talents, achievements and needs as they relate to this award. • A “piece of self” that captures an essential picture of you as a person, for instance, a piece of writing, a work of art (see How to Apply #5), a portfolio or some other creative endeavor. Be sure each piece is labeled with your name. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past year that address your talent, potential and creativity.
Mark Papworth Memorial Scholarship Amount: $1,000 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending at least half time who demonstrates an interest in anthropology and/or forensic science. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your interest in studying anthropology and/or forensic science. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA or WAFSA (See How to Apply #4).
Mark Stephen Souder Scholarship for Information Dissemination Amount: $3,001 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full time who demonstrates an interest in information dissemination (e.g., writer, web designer, teacher, musician, activist; anyone helping to influence the way people think about their world) to change the concepts of “nons”—non-residents, non-Caucasians, non-heterosexuals—to create a more equal, intelligent and compassionate society. Preference will be given to non-resident gay or lesbian students demonstrating quality and creativity of prior work in the area of information dissemination. Financial need will also be considered.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your passion for and level of expertise in the dissemination of information. Tell us where you have been with this concept, what you are doing now and where you want to go in exploring how information is shared. Include a statement related to your financial need. • A portfolio of work that expresses your beliefs about information dissemination and demonstrates how you have put those beliefs into action. • Two letters of recommendation from individuals, other than relatives, who have personally experienced the power of your work in information dissemination. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Mary Ann Steele Scholarship Amount: $2,286 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time who self-identifies as LGBTQ (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer) and must demonstrate leadership skills in advancing LGBTQ equality. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a four year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Describe how you have demonstrated leadership skills in advancing LGBTQ equality. • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Mathew Slobodkin Memorial Award Amount: $2,600 Offered to a currently enrolled student with sophomore standing who has completed three quarters at Evergreen and is attending full time who does not have a conventional high school diploma. The applicant may hold a GED or other high school equivalency. The applicant should demonstrate academic success and show evidence of contributing to the political, artistic and/or cultural life of the Evergreen or Olympia communities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application describing your academic achievements and personal goals as they relate to this award. • Two letters of recommendation from Evergreen faculty written within the past two years.
McConkey Trustee's Scholarship Amount: $4,558 2 awarded Offered to new or currently enrolled students attending full time for the 2017–18 academic year. The McConkey Trustee's scholarship was established with a bequest from the estate of Carolyn McConkey. It was her wish to assist deserving undergraduate students who demonstrate professional promise, academic achievement and financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application describing your academic achievements and outlining your future goals. Include a statement related to your financial need. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Merit Award Amount: Equal to undergraduate resident tuition up to 18 credits; 5 awarded; nonrenewable Important Information: Tuition Awards listed are a waiver of a student's tuition. A recipient of a tuition award cannot receive funding in excess of the cost of full-time undergraduate tuition. In addition, a recipient of a tuition award cannot use the funding for any of the study abroad consortium agreements. Offered to new students attending full time who will graduate from high school in 2017 and who can provide evidence of being a National Merit Semi-Finalist Scholar.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your preparation for college work. This should include your high school curricular and extracurricular achievements and activities. Your statement should show evidence of your ability to connect your high school experience to your future college experience. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past year from individuals, other than relatives, who are familiar with your achievements. • Transcripts from high school and each college, if attending college prior to high school graduation (see How to Apply #3A and B). These are in addition to transcripts submitted for admission. • Letter from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) notifying you that you are a National Merit Semi-Finalist Scholar.
Merv Cadwallader Scholarship Amount: $1,918 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time who is able to demonstrate a personal commitment to the betterment of society through good citizenship and community involvement. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your commitment to the betterment of society through good citizenship and community involvement. • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Microsoft Alumni Scholarship Amount: $2,012, 2 awarded Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with sophomore, junior or senior standing attending full time, who has demonstrated the goal of applying technology (use of computers, computer software, electronic communications or digital media) to a discipline of study through past individual or academic projects. Applicants need not come from exclusively computer science backgrounds. All disciplines are encouraged to apply. Financial need must be demonstrated.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your qualifications that includes a proposal for the project you hope to pursue. The proposal should explain how you will incorporate computing into your discipline. Proposals will be evaluated for clarity and thoroughness, how realistic and attainable the goal is, creativity (e.g., is this new work that will stretch current thinking?) and utility within and outside of academics. Include a statement related to your financial need. • A portfolio containing examples of past work. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past year. • Transcripts from Evergreen or each college previously attended (see How to Apply #3). • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Miriam & Gerald Erlick Memorial Scholarship Amount: $1,478 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time who was orphaned or raised in foster homes or in another alternative living arrangement without parenting by biological parent(s). This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Mueller Family Scholarship Amount: $2,657 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time and focusing on environmental studies. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in their family to go to college (i.e., neither parent has a four-year college degree) • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your passion for and experience in environmental studies. • Why are you interested in environmental studies? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

Nicandri Athletic Scholarship Amount: $1,000 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student who is an eligible NAIA registered intercollegiate athlete participating on one of Cascade Collegiate Conference sponsored teams (i.e., basketball, soccer, outdoor track and field, and women’s volleyball). Preference will be given to a first year student coming directly from high school. Second preference will be given to a community college transfer student. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application outlining the importance of balancing athletics with academics. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation, at least one from your coach, that supports your application. • Verification that you are registered with the NAIA Eligibility Center. • FAFSA or WAFSA (see How to Apply #4).
Niels Skov Scholarship Amount: $2,829 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college for reasons not related to academic performance and who demonstrate financial need. The successful applicant must also demonstrate a passion for the study of the numerous forms of entrepreneurship and a desire to use this passion in their professional pursuits. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are you studying and why? • Describe your passion for the study of entrepreneurship. • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish at Evergreen; particularly, how do you plan to apply your passion for entrepreneurship in your professional pursuits? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Nonsequitur Scholarship Amount: $3,838 Offered to a currently enrolled student attending full time for the 2017–18 academic year.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application, not to exceed two pages, explaining why you should be considered for this scholarship and expressing your past scholastic accomplishments. • A personal essay, not to exceed one page, in which you describe a specific scholastic or personal achievement and explain how it has formed or affected your educational goals. • Three letters of recommendation written within the past year from individuals, other than relatives, who are familiar with your achievements. At least one of these letters should be from a recent teacher or faculty member (high school or college) who is familiar with your academic record and potential.
Persistence Scholarship Amount: $1,000; renewable up to 4 years Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with expressed interest in science or business studies at Evergreen and a demonstrated history of community involvement or service. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages responding to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your interest in pursuing science or business studies at Evergreen. • Describe your history of community involvement or service. • Include a statement related to your financial need. • FAFSA or WASFA (see Steps to Take #4).

Pete Sinclair Memorial Scholarship Amount: $1,000 Offered to a new transfer or currently enrolled student with junior or senior standing who demonstrates a focus on English literature, with preference given to students interested in creative writing, the classics and/or poetry. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your interest in English Literature, creative writing, the classics and/or poetry. Include a statement related to your financial need • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • New students must submit unofficial transcripts from each college they have previously attended (see How to Apply #3B). These are in addition to ones submitted for Admissions. • Current Evergreen students must submit copies of Evergreen transcripts (see How to Apply #3C) or letters from program faculty specifically addressing academic achievement. The letters from faculty will not substitute for letters of recommendation if used to replace transcripts. • FAFSA or WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Phoenix Rising Scholarship Amount: $1,000 Offered to a new or currently enrolled female student who is a survivor of domestic abuse or sexual assault. The applicant must demonstrate academic promise. Preference will be given to a student demonstrating financial need. The intent of this scholarship is to create an opportunity for women to become more educated, and to help them become more whole as members of our community and our world. It will help provide a more holistic than traditional approach to healing, just as Evergreen is a more holistic approach to higher education. The Phoenix Rising Scholarship will be given to women who have not abandoned the dreams of their childhoods, women who know that strength comes from living, and that while life may not always be fair or just, it is filled with possibilities.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A letter of application describing your academic achievements and why you wish to be considered for this scholarship. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past two years from faculty or teachers who are familiar with your academic achievements and potential. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Political Ecology 1971–1972 Program Scholarship Amount: $1,825 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full time, pursuing environmental studies and demonstrating a continuing commitment to the field through academic work, community service or employment. Preference will be given to a student with financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A two-page essay describing demonstrated commitment and goals in the environmental field. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Rachel Corrie Memorial Scholarship Amount: $2,900; nonrenewable Evergreen students who will reach sophomore status (or above) by the beginning of the fall term of the academic year for which the scholarship is awarded. The scholarship may be awarded to an individual student for only 1 year. Rachel Corrie, a lifelong Olympia resident, Evergreen student and community activist was killed by an Israeli bulldozer in Rafah, Gaza, on March 16, 2003, while defending the home of a Palestinian family against unlawful demolition. This scholarship is for students dedicated to gaining a better understanding of the Middle East and to working locally or internationally to further Middle East peace. Applicants must show how they will use their studies to promote human rights and social justice through community activism and/or political advocacy. Areas of interest related to the Middle East may include: Arab culture and Arabic language, U.S. policy in the Middle East, and peace, justice and conflict resolution studies.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application explaining your qualifications and why you wish to be considered for the scholarship. Include a short description of your intended studies and how you plan to incorporate them into the community context described above. • A copy of an analytical essay or art, prose, poetry, photography or other creative medium that you feel is relevant to your qualifications. Do not send originals as items will not be returned. Please include a statement explaining the relevance of your work (art, prose, poetry, etc.) to the application. • Two letters of recommendation from individuals, other than relatives, who are familiar with your qualifications.

Rainwater/Ross Endowment Fund Amount: $2,879 Offered to a new freshman attending full time who demonstrates service to his or her community through volunteer programs. Secondary consideration will be given to those with financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application describing your community service. Include a statement related to your financial need. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Roberto Clemente Memorial Scholarship Amount: $1,478 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending full time who is pursuing a career in Puerto Rican or Central American studies. Applicants should have proficiency in conversational Spanish. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of a demonstrable commitment to public service, scholastic achievement and financial need. Other things being equal, preference will be given to students of Latin American and Puerto Rican heritage who will be the first of their family to graduate from a four-year college and to students intending to study abroad in Central America or Puerto Rico.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your qualifications and why you wish to be considered for the scholarship. Your letter should include a description of your academic achievements, public service experience and a description of how your academic plan will help you achieve your goal of pursuing Puerto Rican or Central American studies. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation from individuals, other than relatives, who are familiar with your achievements. • New Students must submit unofficial transcripts from high school and/or previous colleges (see How to Apply #3a and b). These are in addition to transcripts submitted for admission. • Current Evergreen students must submit copies of Evergreen evaluations (see How to Apply #3c) or letters from program faculty specifically addressing academic achievement. The letters from faculty will not substitute for letters of recommendation if used to replace evaluations. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Shauna May Memorial Scholarship Amount: $3,150 Offered to a new transfer or currently enrolled student with junior or senior standing attending full time who is pursuing studies in the humanities: literature, history, philosophy, anthropology, psychology or religion.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your qualifications. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past year from recent or current faculty members.
Skipping Stone Foundation Scholarship Amount: $1,500 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student attending at least half time who shows a passion for performing and/or visual arts. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application addressing your qualifications. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past year from recent or current faculty members.

Soroptimist International of Olympia Endowment Scholarship Amount: $1,045 Offered to a new transfer or currently enrolled female student who has completed a minimum of 45 credits at the time of application with demonstrated involvement in community activities and/or services. The successful applicant must enroll full time. Preference will be given to students demonstrating financial need. Soroptimist International of Olympia, part of the world's largest classified service organization for executive and professional women, has supported successful community service initiatives in the Olympia area for more than 60 years. The recipient is expected to attend a Soroptimist scholarship recognition meeting during the academic year.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application, not to exceed two typed, double-spaced pages, indicating why you should be awarded this scholarship. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation written within the past year from individuals other than relatives regarding your community activities/services. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Steven Gibson Memorial Scholarship Amount: $2,366 This scholarship was established to honor the life of Steven Gibson, his creative and retentive mind, forceful character and loving personality. Offered to a currently enrolled student who has completed at least one quarter at Evergreen and plans to attend full time. The applicant must demonstrate financial need.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A one-page letter of application addressing your reasons for attending Evergreen and expectations and goals for providing service to other people. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Three letters of recommendation written within the past year from individuals, other than relatives, who are familiar with your background. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Storytelling Scholarship Amount: $1,000 Offered to a currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing, attending full time, who demonstrates a commitment to storytelling in any discipline, including: creative or academic writing, media, music, the visual arts, or performance. This scholarship is also intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in their family to go to college (i.e., neither parent has a four-year college degree) • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your interest in storytelling. • What are you studying at Evergreen and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set above. • FAFSA or WASFA (see Steps to Take #4).

Thayer Raymond Memorial Scholarship Amount: $5,634, two awards Note: Students from the Tacoma campus and the Reservation-Based/Tribal Program need to follow an application process specific to their programs. Contact the program directors for more information. Offered to new transfer and currently enrolled juniors and seniors attending full time at the Tacoma campus, the Reservation-Based/Tribal Program or the Olympia campus. Awards will go to students who can demonstrate financial need and involvement in the betterment of society.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A two-page letter of application addressing your involvement in the betterment of society. Include a statement related to your financial need. • Two letters of recommendation from individuals who can support your involvement in the betterment of society. • New students must submit transcripts from each college they have previously attended (see How to Apply #3B). These are in addition to ones submitted for admission. • Current Evergreen students must submit copies of Evergreen evaluations (see How to Apply #3C) or letters from program faculty specifically addressing academic achievement. These letters from faculty will not substitute for letters of recommendation if used to replace evaluations. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
TRiO Scholarships Amount: $7,000 (split over 3 years), multiple awards TRiO Waivers Amount: equal to undergraduate resident tuition up to 18 credits, 3 awarded Important Information: Tuition Awards listed are a waiver of a student's tuition. A recipient of a tuition award cannot receive funding in excess of the cost of full-time undergraduate tuition. In addition, a recipient of a tuition award cannot use the funding for any of the study abroad consortium agreements. Offered to TRiO-eligible students (first in their family to pursue a bachelor's, low income and/or have a documented disability) who	will be new or currently enrolled in Evergreen's TRiO Student Success program, who have previously been affiliated with TRiO (i.e. Upward Bound, Talent Search, TRiO SSS at another institution), and/or who have taken one of Evergreen's TRiO classes. Applicants must join the TRiO Student Success program if awarded. Preference will be given to applicants with financial need. Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A letter of application describing how your involvement with TRiO has impacted your academic performance, self-confidence, philosophy of service to others and how your life choices demonstrate your commitment to service.
Tom Rainey History and Literature Scholarship Amount: $2,055 Offered to a currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing who is passionate about the humanities. Preference will be given to students focusing on history and literature. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college and who demonstrate financial need. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in their family to go to college (i.e., neither parent has a four-year college degree) • Native American • Hispanic/Latino 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • African American • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe how your passion for the humanities is demonstrated in your academic work. • What are you studying at Evergreen and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish Evergreen? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).

United Faculty of Evergreen Solidarity Scholarship Amount: $550; 12 awarded Offered to currently enrolled students attending full time with junior or senior standing. This scholarship was established to offer financial support to students who are residents of Washington and who demonstrate financial need arising from the 2009 tuition increase. In solidarity with students completing their degree programs at Evergreen, a number of members of the faculty volunteered to dedicate a portion of their 1% 2008 salary increase, bargained through United Faculty of Evergreen, to support students who might otherwise be unable to complete their Evergreen education. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • African American • Latinx • Native American • DREAMers (undocumented immigrant whose 1st language is not English) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A first generation student, e.g., a student whose parents did not graduate from a 4 year college or university • LGBTQ • Parent Submit the following: Letter of application explaining how your Evergreen education has prepared you for service to the greater community. Include in your letter a financial need statement addressing how the tuition increase has impacted you. FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).
Washington High School Merit Award Amount: Multiple awards, $7,000 (split over 2 years) Important Information: Tuition Awards listed are a waiver of a student's tuition. A recipient of a tuition award cannot receive funding in excess of the cost of full-time undergraduate tuition. In addition, a recipient of a tuition award cannot use the funding for any of the study abroad consortium agreements. Offered to new freshman entering Evergreen Fall Quarter as full-time undergraduate students who are graduating from a Washington state high school, have been home schooled in Washington state or earned their GED in 2017. Awards are offered to students who have distinguished themselves in a wide range of areas, e.g., academic achievement, community service, music, art, journalism, science.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application explaining your achievements and why you wish to be considered for this award. • Unofficial high school transcripts • Two letters of recommendation written in the past year from individuals, other than relatives, who are familiar with your achievements.
Wayne Garrett Kostin Scholarship Amount: $1,256 Offered to a new or currently enrolled student with at least sophomore standing attending full time. This scholarship is intended to support promising students who may be at risk of dropping out of college for reasons not related to academic performance and who demonstrate financial need. The successful applicant should demonstrate a strong personal commitment to working toward a more just, accepting and peaceful society through volunteer work, activism, political/community participation, and/or other means. Applicants must self-identify as gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender. In addition, the applicant should be one or more of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Facing high levels of student loan indebtedness • A first generation student, e.g., a student who is the first in his or her immediate family to attend college • Native American • Hispanic/Latino • African American 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A parent • Age 24-26 and working to complete his or her degree Submit the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Letter of application no longer than two pages. Please speak to the following in your letter of application: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Describe your strong personal commitment to working toward a more just, accepting and peaceful society through volunteer work, activism, political/community participation, and/or other means. • What are you studying and why? • How do you plan to use your degree after you finish at Evergreen; particularly, how do you plan to apply your passion for a more just, accepting and peaceful society? • Statement, no longer than half of one page, outlining how you meet one of the additional criteria set out above. • Two letters of recommendation supporting your application. • FAFSA OR WASFA (see How to Apply #4).