Get Ready for Winter Quarter Registration

It may feel like fall quarter just started, but registration for winter will start next month. Now's the best time to meet with an advisor to discuss your plan for winter!

- The Winter 2017 Academic Fair will be held Wednesday, November 30, from 4:00-6:00 pm in the CRC.
- Registration week begins the following Monday, December 5. More information on the registration process is available at www.evergreen.edu/registration/how-to.
- Keep an eye out for e-mail from Registration in late November with info about your registration time ticket!
- If you're planning to do an internship or Individual Learning Contract \(ILC\) in winter, the deadline for submitting your contract is December 9. That means you need to have found a faculty sponsor, written up the contract, and gotten all needed approvals by then.
- If you're considering joining a continuing program that started in fall, get in touch with the faculty as soon as possible to make sure this is possible and to find out about what you will need to do to get caught up.

Academic advisors would love to talk with you about preparing for winter quarter. Talk with an advisor in early November and avoid the rush!

Want to get involved? Volunteer for the event! All you need to do is fill out the Volunteer Registration Form by November 4. All volunteers receive a free T-shirt with the conference logo on it!

Alexis Cariello Joins SASS as Associate Director of TRiO Student Success

Please help us welcome Alexis to her new role as Associate Director of TRiO Student Success. Alexis is originally from the Northeast and received her Bachelors of Social Work from the University of Wisconsin at Madison, and her Masters of Social Work from the Columbia University School of Social Work. Before moving to Washington with her now husband, Alexis worked at Big Brothers Big Sisters of NYC, The Young Adult Institute in NYC, and in the community mental health field as an outpatient therapist.

Alexis is excited to be joining the TRiO Team. Alexis wants to learn every single day from the people around her, because she feels that every person she interacts with is a teacher.

She is most interested in what students have to teach and how their lessons can shape staff and faculty culture. She has a deeply rooted love of New York sports teams (Knicks, Yankees, Giants) and her dog named Clyde, who's a 2-year old boxer-lab.

You can find Alexis in the TRiO wing of Student & Academic Support Services, Library 2153.

Academic Statement Submission Window Opens November 10

Your required annual Academic Statement isn't due until May 18, but we encourage you to start working on it early, and continue to revise it through the year. That will prevent you from sitting in front of a computer on May 17 trying to remember all those great ideas and deep thoughts you had earlier in the year! You can edit, update, and submit a preliminary draft anytime after November 10. More info about the Academic Statement is available at www.evergreen.edu/academicstatement.
