Review of Recent Events

Feedback received on orientation has been consistently positive. Nancy M. noted that one parent said it was the most welcoming environment experienced. Attendance at the sessions was approximately 90%. There was a time during orientation where student I.D.s were printed with errors and it affected approximately 300 students. It was found that the printing errors were due to a vendor issue and was remedied relatively quickly.

Acoustics during convocation was an issue for those on stage. With the group so large, it was difficult to keep the attention of the group. It was suggested that a large gathering might not be the best practice.

New President George Bridges attended the Board of Trustees meeting and presented draft goals. The goals will become more detailed as he has more time to engage.

There was an alleged beach trail assault reported to residential life staff last Thursday night. There is chatter on Greener Commons which is being monitored.
