

Confidence

Students were asked a series of questions to rate their level of confidence in an array of areas. Questions are listed below in order of highest to lowest mean response. Tacoma Campus respondents expressed most confidence overall in ability to manage most interpersonal conflicts, having the skills and abilities to succeed at Evergreen, and obtaining an interdisciplinary education. The items with the lowest mean responses were: managing incurred debt, and getting the kinds of classes they want. For both of these areas, over 20% of Tacoma Campus respondents indicated "Not at all" or "A little."
