ES programs with community-based project(s) and/or service learning

	Description of activities
Community Planning: The Future of the Organic Farm	This whole program was shaped as a service to the college. The program served as a consulting agency, in a way. The work we did have direct practical applications for the college and potentially greater community.
SOS: Community Development	Every student had an internship or a community-based project for the majority of their credit. Most students worked on issues of local food security. Other topics included adult literacy, immigrant services, urban design, school gardens and youth-at-risk programs.
