

End-of-Program Review 2008-09

Addressing Oppression, Privilege and Difference - Society, Politics, Behavior and Change Programs

	Extensively	Moderately	A little	Not at All	Percentage of Programs addressed issues	Programs addressed issues (N)	Programs responded (N)
Society, Politics, Behavior and Change	43.8%	12.5%	31.3%	12.5%	87.6%	14	16
All Programs	31.4%	26.3%	23.7%	18.6%	81.4%	96	118

SPBC Programs that addressed issues of oppression, privilege and difference

	Extent	Strategies
Decolonizing the Mind	Extensively	Readings, workshops, and films
Gateways: Popular Education and Political Economy	Extensively	Writing, reflection, reading, discussing, drawing, workshops and in most if not all of these activities a key strategy was connecting these three to political economy
Multicultural Counseling	Extensively	Seminar books, lectures, reflection based learning activities, art (movement, drawing, writing), group discussions, role-playing, and internship.
Political Economy of the Media	Extensively	If approved, the response to this will be covered in a 2-day summer faculty institute.
Race in the United States: Historical and Contemporary Perspectives"	Extensively	The entire program was devoted to this theme -- impossible to detail an entire quarter of strategies in this space but am available to meet with you to present approaches that were used...
SOS: Social Services and Social Justice	Extensively	Reading, writing about, and discussing Johnson's _Privilege, Power, and Difference._ regular seminars and reflective writing on social justice issues that arise in internships or field studies
What Are Families For?	Extensively	Class, race and gender analysis and debates built into entire program
Behavioral Medicine	Moderately	Film and discussion
Beyond the News: Media Theory and Global History	Moderately	Discussion of the materials
Advanced Foundations of Successful and Sustainable Buisnesses	A Little	Examined the economic systems of other nations, examined the curent day inacial crisis, foreclosures. unemployment and their inequities
Economic Crisis? OMG!	A Little	Included in assigned readings, incorporated into seminar discussions
Health and Human Development	A Little	Cross-culturally only. By readings, focus on cross-cultural differences and not oppression/privilege
Money, Finance and Power	A Little	Use of readings and analysis of economic theories treatment of race and class.
So You Want to Be a Psychologist	A Little	Viewing films and extensive work with one of the Taking Sides series of books- this one on issues in Psychology.