

End-of-Program Review 2011-12

Addressing Oppression, Privilege and Difference - Scientific Inquiry Programs

Did your program address issues of oppression, privilege and difference?

	Extensively	Moderately	A little	Not at All	Percentage of Programs addressed issues	Programs addressed issues (N)	Programs responded (N)
Scientific Inquiry	7.1%	7.1%	14.3%	71.4%	28.5%	4	14
All Programs	33.1%	27.9%	21.3%	17.6%	82.3%	112	136

SI Programs that addressed Issues of Oppression, Privilege and Difference	Extent	Strategies
Introduction to Public Health	Extensively	Our program had some central focus on social justice and the relationship between hierarchy and health status.
Energy Systems and Climate Change	Moderately	Reading and discussion. For example, Intergovernmental panel on Climate Change (IPCC) articles document disproportionate vulnerability and suffering of low-resource populations to climate change...
The Science Behind the Headlines: What's the Truth?	A little	Seminar, Movie
Language and the Evolution of Mind	A little	Animal Ethics