TAX AND WAGE INFORMATION INSTRUCTION SHEET

Keep this page for your records

Please read carefully before completing the verification process. We cannot review your financial aid file until we have received all the requested information. Incomplete or missing documents may delay your financial aid award.

If you have already submitted 2022 income information for your 2023-2024 file, contact our office.

I have filed taxes and have given consent to transfer my tax information from the IRS to my FAFSA.

As part of federal student aid eligibility, students, and spouses (as appropriate), will be required to consent and approve sharing and importing income and tax information from the IRS to the FAFSA form, even if the attempt to obtain or use such data is ineffective.

I have filed taxes, I am unable to provide consent to transfer my tax information from the IRS to my FAFSA, and I will provide a copy of my 2022 Tax Return Transcript. You may go to the IRS Website at www.irs.gov and click on "Get My Tax Record," then choose the transcript online or by mail. You need to use the address listed on your tax return and list the main person who filed the return for this option to work properly. You may also fill out Form 4506-T and send that to the IRS to get a copy by mail. If you are not able to obtain one, we can accept a signed copy of your 1040 form. If you amended your taxes after you filed, we will also need a signed copy of your 1040X.

I filed a 2022 tax return and have some income from self-employment and I will provide a 2022 Tax Return Transcript from the IRS and copies of all Schedule K-1 (Form 1065) and W2's if applicable. -If you do not have W2's, submit a signed statement confirming your wages with this form. If you earned more than $400 in self-employment, you must file taxes.

I am not required to, and will not file a 2022 tax return, but I did work and will provide copies of my 2022 W2's, and provide a signed and dated statement certifying that I will not file and I am not required to file a 2022 income tax return, as well as list the sources of 2022 income earned from work and the amount of income from each source.

I did not work and will not file a 2022 tax return. I will provide a signed and dated statement certifying that I will not file and I am not required to file a 2022 income tax return.
