Description of Society, politics, Behavior and Change with humanities

SPBC with humanities	Extent	Field	Introductory	Intermediate	Advanced
Growing Up American: Class, Race, Gender, Sexuality, Love and Family	Extensively	History, cultural studies, historical analysis of popular films of the 1950s and 1960s		X
Political Economy and Social Movements	Moderately	History and cultural studies		X
The Arts of the Sailor	Moderately	History	X

Colonialism and Decolonization	Moderately	We focused on the historical context of issues that were central to the program. In addition to that, we highlighted the cultural milieu in which identities were formed, knowledge of others constructed, and difference confronted. Of the geographical areas that we explored, I would mention the Americas, Middle East, and Africa. Only two works of literature were made part of required readings (an autobiography and a book of poetry). Philosophical explorations were limited but demanding ( Edward Said's Orientalism).		X
Business, Culture and the State in the U.S. and Latin America	Moderately	Latin American literature (100 Years of Solitude, Bad Vibes), history and culture.	X	X
