

End-of-Program Review 2007-08
Addressing Oppression, Privilege and Difference - Core Programs

	Extensively	Moderately	A little	Not at All	Percentage of Programs addressed issues	Programs addressed issues (N)	Programs responded (N)
Core Programs	25.0%	25.0%	33.3%	16.7%	83.3%	10	12
All Programs	27.0%	28.7%	27.8%	16.5%	83.5%	96	115

Core Programs that addressed issues of oppression, privilege and difference

	Extent	Strategies
Awakening the Dreamer, Pursuing the Dream	Extensively	Speakers, films, readings, activities, journaling, expressive arts and more.
Seeds of Change: Food, Culture and Work	Extensively	Workshops and exercises, films, literature.
War: Consequences and Alternatives	Extensively	In the context of who is affected by war, esp. children and women (civilians); in the context of now "insurgents" and "terrorists" as the "other" defined by document power.
Time and Place: Regional Environmental Histories	Moderately	[Faculty did not elaborate.]
Perception, Mind and Reality	Moderately	Lectures, texts, guests including Maxine Mimms.
HOLLYWOOD	Moderately	Readings and film analysis of representation of gay/lesbians in film, African Americans in film, Hispanics in film.
Knowing Nature	A Little	Discussions of privileged positions of scientists and philosophers in eras covered, as well as slavery.
Basic Botany: Plants and People	A Little	Readings and seminar discussions as well as lecture.
Evolution in America: Innovations, Idiosyncrasies and Blind Spots	A Little	[Faculty did not elaborate.]
Art and Religious Practice	A Little	[Faculty did not elaborate.]