

End-of-Program Review 2008-09

Addressing Oppression, Privilege and Difference - Core Programs

	Extensively	Moderately	A little	Not at All	Percentage of Programs addressed issues	Programs addressed issues (N)	Programs responded (N)
Core Programs	0.0%	66.7%	16.7%	16.7%	83.4%	5	6
All Programs	31.4%	26.3%	23.7%	18.6%	81.4%	96	118

Core Programs that addressed issues of oppression, privilege and difference

	Extent	Strategies
Hop on Pop	Moderately	Screenings, readings, lecture, and discussion of materials on the discourses of gender, sexuality, race and class in popular culture.
Trees and Humans: Ecology, Arts, and Culture	Moderately	Visits to tribal communities; readings on tribal sovereignty, history and resource use patterns
Character Studies: Images, Ethics, and Culture	Moderately	Texts, discussion, historical inquiry
Wonderful Ideas	Moderately	Interview methodology, literature, guest speaker- Willie Baptist, community based arts projects (as topic)
Creativity & Constraint	A Little	Addressed in relation to specific readings. Seminar.