

End-of-Program Review 2009-10

Sustainability in Society, Politics, Behavior and Change (SPBC) programs

Did your program address sustainability? Sustainability can include:

- Living within the limits (for example, reducing consumption)
- Understanding the interconnections among economy, society, and environment
- Equitable distribution of resources and opportunities

	Extensively	Moderately	A little	Not at All	Percent of Programs Addressed Sustainability	Programs Addressed Sustainability (N)	Programs responded (N)
Society, Politics, Behavior and Change	37.5%	31.3%	25.0%	6.3%	93.8%	15	16
All Programs	19.2%	24.6%	25.4%	30.8%	69.2%	90	130

SPBC Programs that include sustainability	Extent	Areas of sustainability studied in the program (e.g., environmental sustainability, social sustainability including social justice, economic sustainability, sustainable business practices, community sustainability, environmental ethics)
Sustainable Business Leadership	Extensively	This was the mission of the program, to raise the awareness and offer the students a toolbox of quality business skills and ideas that can be used in the "real" world of business design. We used three great sustainable workshop books from the UK and two from the www.nwei.org on how all of this fits into the communities we live in.
Making Change Happen	Extensively	Social Justice, Equitable distribution of resources and opportunities, Community Development
Current Economic and Social Issues	Extensively	Environmental, economic, social justice
The Greening of Business: A Public and Private Process	Extensively	Environmental sustainability, social sustainability, economic sustainability, sustainable business practice
Puget Sound: Gateway to the World	Extensively	Economic sustainability. I prefer feasibility, opportunity cost, cost/benefit and externalities, sustainability is too political and vague.
American Frontiers: Homelands and Empire	Extensively	Community sustainability; social justice; environmental sustainability
Gateways: Popular Education and Political Economy	Moderately	Social, economics and community sustainability
Multicultural Counseling	Moderately	Social justice, community sustainability, environmental sustainability
Dream to Green: Sustainable Entrepreneurship	Moderately	Economic sustainability and business practices
Understanding the Economic Crisis	Moderately	Economic sustainability
Turning Eastward: Explorations in East-West Psychology	Moderately	Deep ecology, mindful consumption, environmental ethics
Social Psychology of Gender	A Little	Social justice, social equity across race, class and gender
Political Economy and Social Movements	A Little	Social Justice, Economic Justice, Social Justice
SOS Vision and Action (Entrepreneurial Ventures)	A Little	Social entrepreneurship, economic sustainability
SOS: Information Gone Wild: Continuities of Knowledge in the Digital Age	A Little	Digital Divide
