

End-of-Program Review 2011-12

Sustainability in Tribal: Reservation-Based/Community Determined programs (TRI)

Did your program address sustainability? Sustainability can include:

- Living within the limits (for example, reducing consumption)
- Understanding the interconnections among economy, society, and environment
- Equitable distribution of resources and opportunities

	Extensively	Moderately	A little	Not at All	Percent of Programs Addressed Sustainability	Programs Addressed Sustainability (N)	Programs responded (N)

TRI Programs that include sustainability	Extent	Areas of sustainability studied in the program (e.g., environmental sustainability, social sustainability including social justice, economic sustainability, sustainable business practices, community sustainability, environmental ethics)
TRI - Rebuilding Native Nations: Strategies for Governance and Development - Nisqually	Moderately	Environmental Sustainability, Social Sustainability, Community Sustainability, Environmental Ethics. We devote one quarter of a nine quarter program repeating these to sustainability; I suspect we could/should do more.
TRI - Rebuilding Native Nations: Strategies for Governance and Development - Quinault	Moderately	Community, Social Justice, Generational Cultural Sustainability
